

Your Pet's Star Sign

Understanding your animal companion through astrology

By Esther Teh

Given that astrology has a profound effect upon our human world so it also influences the lives of our pets and just as the zodiac is divided up into 12 very different personality types it is perfectly natural that this should extend to animals. For example a homely Cancerian dog is much more likely to prefer curling up by the fire than an adventurous Aries of the same breed who will constantly yearn to explore the great outdoors.

And so too with cats. Cats can be hedonists, lazy, friendly, aggressive or timid. All these different traits can be explained by studying the astrological influences that determine their character and behaviour patterns. Now check out your own pet's horoscope to see what the stars say....

ARIES (21 Mar - 20 Apr)

The Aries companion is spirited! They don't give up or more will power and consistency than she does, when in everything, jumping from a height of 10 feet high little thing isn't she! The flip side of it is that like her fair bit. The Aries male would still be as adventurous, quicker with learning and less defiant. He may charm give in at any time and that translates into you needing it comes to discipline. Typically Aries, she's interested with no sign of fear or any display of hesitation. Brave human counterpart, she seems to injure her head a curious and daring but less aggressive. He is likely to be you with his gallantry and his genteel nature.

TAURUS (21 Apr - 20 May)

The Taurean animal companion would be somewhat If you look at his chest, you will find it broader and or pushed around by others. He is passive in nature he retaliates in anger, growling. If your Taurus animal looking at you with such adoration and always seeking fool you into thinking that she's the innocent party in in group play).

stocky in physical stature, regardless of species or breed. "stout". He is extremely patient even when "bullied" – it takes quite a bit of constant "prodding" before friend is a female, notice how loving she is, always your attention. She's a sweetie pie but don't let that moments when there's a need for discipline (for example,

GEMINI (21 May - 21 Jun)

Your Gemini love is a curious one. Whether male or female, they would be quite independent in nature and may not want or need to be cuddled all that much. If you are without a leash or harness, you would best be can disappear from your sight that split second that hands full with the Aries, let me tell you now that you One thing I have noticed is that Geminian dogs don't there's anything you don't want drenched in saliva, or in drawers or cupboards where they should be (or your

If squelched with other bodily fluids, I suggest you keep it all child will be saying to his teacher "the dog ate my homework").

CANCER (22 Jun - 22 Jul)

The Cancerian canine or feline is one that needs lots of sadness and who can resist those cutesy eyes turned and give lots of smoochies and watch their eyes light more "moody" and despondent and will need more – these friends of ours have a tendency to put on emotional fodder. They are prone to moments of on you? Give the fella a hug and pick him (or her) up up! During the times of a full Moon, they may seem cuddles. Don't use food to make them feel better weight easily especially around the abdomen.

LEO (23 Jul - 22 Aug)

The big cat (yes, you guessed it – I am referring to the Leo would be somewhat more lazy than his female and lazing in the sun. If your Leo friend is a cat, stroke him under the chin. The female Leo (especially likely to catch her peering at you from behind the sofa or stalking people and things in the house. You would Leo) is an interesting specimen to watch. The female counterpart. Imagine him spreading out on the rug expect him to give off a contented purring when you if of the feline species) is very much the hunter. You are set and pouncing on you. You may even catch her "hunting" need to be firm with her, especially when trying to discipline.

VIRGO (23 Aug - 22 Sep)

The Virgo canine is a dog that needs lots of attention potty on the paper. He is a dog that craves approval "wrong" (something you don't want him to do), do break his heart. Guide him well and gently and he and praises when he has done right – like going to and affection! Should you catch him doing something exercise restraint when saying "NO" or you could will behave like a little angel always.

LIBRA (23 Sep - 22 Oct)

The Libra animal is one that will shine in training programs. You may spot a bit of a cheeky urchin in pen when you turn your back on them for even just entertain you with his antics and his intelligence.

programs! They are highly intelligent and are quick learners. You may spot a bit of a cheeky urchin in pen when you turn your back on them for even just entertain you with his antics and his intelligence.

SCORPIO (23 Oct - 21 Nov)

The Scorpio companion is rather difficult and shall we animal companion that you are the "leader of the pack" you will have a more pleasant time. When he is wrong, acting out in defiance. Once your superiority has a fairly easy time with this one.

SAGITTARIUS (22 Nov - 21 Dec)

The Sagittarius companion will fill your life with (unintentionally) with his antics. This one is clumsy running after a Frisbee – keep your eye on him, he get back up on his feet with a dazed look on his lots of laughter, as he goes about entertaining you on his feet and is loads of fun to watch as he goes is likely to take a tumble and knock his own chin and face. Absolutely priceless!

CAPRICORN (22 Dec - 19 Jan)

The Capricorn is the easiest of the lot and doesn't need a lot of disciplining. Once the ground rules have been laid and established, you are not likely to find this companion giving you a headache! I have a cat that's born under this sign and he is easy peasy to I was firm with him (his reactions) and less than 24 hours together, they were playing as if they grew up together!

AQUARIUS (20 Jan - 18 Feb)

The Aquarian companion would be a bit tricky to manage – she is likely to be in either extremes of friendliness and warmth vs aloofness but certainly she is one curious baby! Everything is interesting to her and if she goes missing, you are likely to find her in the oddest of places! She may display eccentric behavior, allowing you to hug her and snuggle with her and in the very next second, she may well growl or scratch at you. You would do well to remember that all she wants is love!
